

Pulse Survey

June 2024

Less than 10%

Of career services teams have a student-to-staff ratio of 500:1 or less.

Less than

2%

Of career services teams describe engagement with their office as "great."

38%

Of respondents said the most reliable way to engage students with the career center was through faculty and staff support.

45%

Of career centers offer 5 or more career tools/technologies to students.

More than

55%

Of respondents said it's a significant challenge to engage students with career services, describing the process as "tedious" or "chaotic."

30%

Of career services teams said they'll receive more institutional support going forward.